OP soprano, Barbara Fei, will come out of her virtual "retirement" for a charity cause next week.

recovering from an electrical the City Hall Theatre.

shock, will sell flowers instead of her lovely voice.

She will head a team of 16 "tai-tais" to buttonhole guests at the gala premiere of Cathay's new film, The But Barbara, who is still Lark, next Friday evening at

The move presumably, raise more money for the charity premiere, proceeds of which will go to the Sir David Trench Fund For Recreation.

Barbara recently escaped injury when she was fixing a damaged brass lamp.

The tendon between her finger and thumb was burnt in the accident.

SURGERY

Barbara will enter hospital for plastic surgery after the charity show.

Tickets for the charity premiere are available from Mr Ho Sai-chu, at H-720641.

Double-tickets are $500, $200 and $70.

The Lark, starring Chin Hsiang-lin and Paul Chang Chung, is regarded as one of the best from Cathay studios in recent years.

BARBARA FEI

On the day that strains of harp music were heard coming from St John's Cathedral, a number of young Chinese clerical workers from the Government offices peeked in to see what was happening.

Barbara Fei

Today they may think it is an angel's voice they are hearing. Barbara Fei, well-known Hongkong soprano, is giving her free recital for lunchtime audiences at 1.20 pm.

This is the final presentation arranged by Patrick Nicholas in this series.

DINNER CONCERT

Vision International held a charity dinner concert in the Grand Ballroom of the Hongkong Hyatt. During the evening the 'Korean Children' Choir sang to the 350 guests. Seen here are singer Barbara Fei, William Kleiner and Mrs Harry F. Stanley.