

Comedy Gold
November 2020 Sermon Series

The Bible is full of laugh out loud moments. (No, seriously!) This month we'll have some fun looking at some very funny moments from the Bible and learn to laugh at or with them.

Nov 1 Donkey Breath Numbers 22

Ever feel like God is totally against you? Then you have a twin in the Old Testament, a man named Balaam! Balaam was willing to do as God told him to...to a point. (Sound familiar?) Jesus himself makes an appearance to get Balaam's attention, but first, his donkey would talk out loud to him. Even funnier? Balaam talks back!

Nov 8 Laughing at God Genesis 18

Abraham and Sarah are one of the most famous couples in the Bible. Their story is full of faith, heartache, stress, and joy. The heartache? Sarah was unable to conceive, and her brokenness over that caused the couple a lot of pain. So, when God tells Abraham the good news of Sarah's impending birth, her reaction is priceless: she cracks up laughing. God's reaction and her reaction to that reaction are even funnier!

Nov 15 Puppy Love Matt 15:21-28

A non-Jewish woman comes to Jesus and asks him for some mercy for her demon-possessed daughter. Can you imagine her pain? Jesus, instead, calls her a dog. Wait, a dog??? Was he being serious, or having fun not at her expense but with her playing along? The answer might surprise you.

Nov 22 Open and Shut Acts 12:12-16

Peter has been on a roll in the book of Acts, following through on Jesus' prediction that he would indeed be the rock the church would be built on. Well, until he got thrown into prison. Still, God helps him escape. And when Peter heads to the house where the other church leaders were? He was left outside!

Nov 29 Sleeping in Church Acts 20:7-12

Ever fallen asleep during one of Dave's sermons? (Be honest now...)
If so, Eutychus knows how you feel!
