Stop Lying to Yourself.

Your past does not have to determine your future. Scripture reading: Matthew 21:28-32

Lies we tell ourselves
1. It is not that b
It is never going to get any b
3. I can't because I'm
Story of Florence Chadwick
Do not let your past determine your future.
An example of someone who did not lie to himself is John Mark.
Characteristics of Mark
 H – admitted he was a sinner and needed a Savior H – messed up and owned up to it C – worked with cousin Barnabas, Paul and Peter S – filled a need, church in home, missions, Gospel
What lie are you telling yourself? What problem have you been hiding behind?
Are you honest about being a s and needing a S?
Have you messed up, harboring bitterness and refuse to move on?
s there someone you refuse to f?
Are you willing to work with others to further the cause of Christ?
When you see a need in the Lord's work, do you jump in and do it?
Stop lying to yourself.
You can allow God to change you!
Tou can allow dou to change you:
