Tonya is known to drop anything to help anybody at any time. She gives no thought to when someone calls and needs help. It doesn't matter the situation or what is going on she is willing to do whatever is needed to help.

Last year Tonya was diagnosed with Invasive Ductal Carcinoma (Breast Cancer). She has endured the chemo treatment for 12 weeks but will continue targeted therapy every 3 weeks till October this year. She has been through radiation for 20 days straight. She will be on hormone therapy treatment for the next 5 to 10 years. Along with this cancer diagnosis she deals with Gastroparesis which resulted her in getting an electronic stimulator for her stomach.

At the end of the day Tonya wakes up each day and gives 100% to fight this ugly disease. She maintains a positive attitude and does her best to put on a smile. She is the most resilient, caring, strongest women I know. I know she will take this diagnosis head on and beat it!!
