

Guster, Jean D.

Jean Delores Guster, 79, a lifelong Caseville resident, died Friday, Nov. 20, 2009 at Bay Regional Medical Center.

Jean was born March 4, 1930 in Caseville to the late Wallace and Alice (Kelly) O'Connor. She graduated from Pigeon High School in 1948.

On Oct. 1, 1949, she married John Peter Guster at St. Roch Catholic Church, Caseville. John preceded her in death on Jan. 28, 2004.

Jean enjoyed cooking and baking, watching movies and her soaps, plants, being outdoors and spending time with her family. She had an adventurous spirit and a big heart in a small body.

Surviving are her daughters, Linda (Raoul) Rhoades of Bad Axe and Julie (Jim) Langley of Caseville; son, Mark (Paula) Guster of Caseville; grandchildren, Brenda Swartzendruber, Shannon Dropiewski, Greg, Bruce and Jerry Langley, James, Ryan and Taylor Guster and Janelle Wiederhold; 15 great-grandchildren; two step-great-grandchildren; and her brother, Darrel (Guyneth "Butch") Conners of Caseville.

She was preceded in death by her parents; husband; and brother, Wallace "Skip" Conners.

Funeral services were at 11 a.m. Monday, Nov. 23, 2009 at the Champagne Funeral Chapel of Caseville with the Rev. Karen Bouverette officiating. Burial was in Caseville Township Cemetery.