2nd Sunday In Ordinary Time

We welcome you to join our congregation of Saint Paul! Registration forms are available at the back of the church, near the entrance or contact Rae Crozier for more information.

Our Scriptures this Sunday help us set our own lives within the grander scheme of things. That grander scheme is called "Divine Providence". One way to describe Divine Providence is to say that it's what God chooses to do, when He does it, and why He does it.

Divine Providence is at the heart of the Scriptures of Holy Mass during the first several weeks in Ordinary Time. Following the Season of Christmas, which ended this past week with the Baptism of Jesus, we turn to consider our own baptism.

When you were baptized, the promises that were made started a relationship where God is your Lord, and you are His servant. Or at least, that's what the life of the Christian is supposed to be like. We hear several different examples of this servant-Lord relationship in today's Scriptures. Each is a model for us, and the last is also something more.

Isaiah was called to serve the Lord as His prophet. "The Lord said to [Isaiah], "You are my servant. I will make you a light to the nations, that my salvation may reach to the ends of the earth." Among all the Old Testament prophets who proclaimed the coming of God's justice, Isaiah had a unique place. His calling was to prepare for the coming of a Messiah who offers loving mercy that knows no bounds and that would "reach to the ends of the earth." Although none of us has been called to be a prophet like Isaiah, there is something in his vocation that ought to be mirrored in our own vocations: namely, loving mercy that knows no bounds.

Bill to Legalize Abortions Defeated

Washington D.C., Jan 11, 2023 - Republicans have defeated a Democrat bill that would legalize abortions up to birth nationwide.

House Republicans have introduced new legislation that would stop infanticide and protect babies who survive abortion. During the debate on the bill, Democrats offered a motion to kill the bill and send it back to committee with a motion to instead approve and move forward on a bill — the misnamed Women’s Health Protection Act. That measure would overturn every pro-life law in America and legalize abortions up to birth.

Please sign up and volunteer to HELP provide snacks or treats for after mass. The sign-up sheet is available in the kitchen. Thank you!!

Happy Birthday!

A LITTLE SUNDAY HUMOR! Provided by: Steve

- ★ Men, don't ever laugh at your wife's choices...you're one of them!
- ★ I frequently look at my husband and think...You're one heck of a lucky man!

BUILDING UPDATE

The roof and walls are up plus the insulation has been installed. The garage door is due to arrive and installed soon.

As of last Wednesday, still no word from the City Power Department, most likely due to other larger local projects that are consuming their time and limited resources? However, our own contractor is talking to other local providers to see if we can gain a little more traction on this issue. More to come!

If you require gluten free communion, please inform the administrator or one of our ushers prior to the start of Mass. Thank you
