KIWANIS MEETING OF October 3, 2022

We had six members — Maria, Anne, Bob R., Eliza, Bob F., and Rick — plus two guests — Raquel and Catherine from the YWCA — at lunch today. The Hyatt Regency served flank steak, potatoes, peas, and chocolate cake. Tell your friends to join Kiwanis and come for lunch, it's the best deal in town!

We started out by expressing club sympathy to Bob Fahres on the recent passing of his wife, Anne.

A memorial service for Anne was held last Saturday. Bob gave a $5 meeting contribution to salute the fine work done for the Fahres family by Hansen Family Funeral services. He also told us a heartwarming story about meeting Anne when they were both members of the University of Wisconsin marching band in the early 1950's.

Our music today was (no surprise) “The Packers Fight Song”. We enjoyed telling our guests the song's history and Rick mentioned that he saw two copies of the original 1930's songbook for sale at Card and Coin in Ashwaubenon. Perhaps a future raffle prize? Bob F. reminded us that for years we incorrectly sang “bring the trophy home to old Green Bay”, but now we have it correct again (thanks to his insistence). It's bacon!

Anne has a new job with FEMA that sounds pretty exciting (and important). Let's hope her travels don't take her away from many of our meetings! She donated two happy dollars.

Eliza is interning this fall at the YWCA. She said her job description is "choose your own adventure" which gave us all a chuckle. I don't remember seeing that as an option when I worked at the muffler factory during college. Thank you, Eliza, for bringing Raquel and Catherine to our lunch today!

Our speakers told us about just a few of the many programs available at the Greater Green Bay YWCA including their boutique/career clothing store, the "Week without Violence" events coming up in two weeks, and the "TechGYRLS" summer program. In the latter, 33 girls visited a dozen local companies and organizations to learn about their services and career opportunities. We even suggested a few local companies that could be good TechGYRL destinations next summer (Ann Patteson, your name might have been mentioned).

We noted club member Ben G. being a YMCA employee and that some of us (or maybe just one of us ... me) thought the two organizations were one and the same! Catherine patiently explained that the YMCA and YWCA are "collaborative, but separate". Upon which the bell ending our meeting was rung and our guests were sincerely thanked.

Next meeting - Monday, October 17

THIS IS IMPORTANT. OUR NEXT MEETING WILL NOT BE AT THE HYATT REGENCY.

We are meeting at the YMCA building downtown so that we'll all have a chance to see the banner acknowledging our recent donation. Come to the main lobby at 235 N. Jefferson Street by noon that day. There's a parking ramp on Pine Street (very close).

Our lunch is coming from Jimmy John's.
