

2009 PAN-AM MASTERS JUDO CHAMPIONSHIPS

Milford, Massachusetts, USA

November 13th & 14th

One hundred fifty one Judoka from four countries and twenty states participated in the seventh Pan-American Masters Judo Championships in Milford Massachusetts. Two Olympians (Patrick Roberge '92 CAN, & Ricardo Tuero '80 CUB) competed and won in their respective divisions. Newaza divisions were added this year and were a big hit. Fifty-one athletes competed in eight divisions on day one of the championships. The shiai was held at the John Smith Sports Center, which is owned by former New England Patriots kicker John Smith. He is best known for making the 34-yard field goal that beat the Miami Dolphins 3-0 in the famous 'Snow Plow Game' in 1982. The full results are listed below.
