Pentecost Sunday (Readings #846, Cycle C)

“They were all filled with the Holy Spirit,” (Acts 2:4). No one who was gathered in the upper room on Pentecost could have missed the presence of the Holy Spirit. A strong, driving wind, tongues of fire, and the apostles speaking in different languages: it was clear that Jesus’ promise of the Spirit coming upon them had been fulfilled (John 14:16). But that promise wasn’t just for the apostles long ago: it’s for us today as well. So, let’s take the opportunity on this great feast to pray for a greater outpouring of the Spirit in our lives.

“Holy Spirit, You appeared as tongues of fire. I want the fire of Your love to burn in my heart. Give me a love that never grows cold, along with the zeal to spread Your saving message to all whom I encounter each day.

“Holy Spirit, You gave gifts to the disciples to build Your Church. In order to do Your work, I need gifts that can only come from You—gifts of wisdom, understanding, counsel, and strength; gifts of prophecy, healing, and discernment of spirits (Isaiah 11:2; Corinthians 12:7-10). You know that I am asking for these gifts not just for myself but so that I can also bring Your glory and lead other people to You. In this season of my life, I especially ask for the gift of _____. But whatever You want to give me, I am open to receiving it.

“Holy Spirit, You opened Peter’s ears so that he could hear the message You wanted him to preach. Open my ears, too, so that I am able to hear You. I want to be Your instrument—to act on whatever You are urging me to do. I can’t do that without staying attuned to Your voice, so help me to listen to You over the noise and busyness of each day.

“Holy Spirit, as You did with the disciples on Pentecost, empower Your people today. Together may we preach the good news and build Your kingdom on earth!”

“Come, Holy Spirit, and fill me with Your love, Your grace, and Your gifts.”

Monday, June 13, is the Feast of St. Anthony. You are invited to join us in praying a prayer to St. Anthony after the 5:30pm Mass on June 13. Novena Prayer:

O Blessed St. Anthony, luminous lamp of the Holy Spirit, intercede for us, that we be delivered from the tyranny of sin and make daily progress in the virtues. Preserve us from vain glory and obtain for us the grace of self-renunciation, so that we may have no other aim save the honor of God and the welfare of the salvation of souls. Amen.
(Pray one Our Father, one Hail Mary, and one Glory Be)
May the Lord bless and take you into His keeping; may He show you His countenance and take pity on you; may He turn His eyes towards you and give you His peace. Amen.

The month of June is devoted to the Sacred Heart of Jesus. We are all encouraged to find time to pray the prayer to the Sacred Heart of Jesus (insert in this bulletin) daily throughout this month. On Friday, June 24, after the 5:30pm Mass, we will recite the Litany to the Sacred Heart.

Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful,
and enkindle in us the fire of your love.
Send forth your Spirit and we shall be created, and you shall renew the face of the earth. Amen.
