BCC MOURNS THE LOSS OF LONG TIME ACTOR AND MEMBER

The Barnstable Comedy Club is saddened by the loss of veteran actor and board member, Jonathan Ahnquist, who passed away on July 8 surrounded by his family. An extremely kind hearted and gifted performer, he often starred in many musicals and acted in plays at The Barnstable Comedy Club, starting in 1994 in Camelot. Many fellow actors and directors found working with him a delight. When not on stage, Jonathan served as a minister at The First Lutheran Church in Barnstable before retiring in 2015. The BCC sends his family and friends its deepest sympathy.

DELIGHTFUL REVIEW OF 'COLE'

The talented cast of 'Love, Cole' treated audiences to a review of Cole Porter songs to conclude a successful 96th Season at the BCC. Audiences thoroughly enjoyed the performances and many were singing along to the familiar tunes. Ironically, three of the performers had headlined in Cole Porter's 'Kiss Me Kate' at The Academy of Performing Arts just prior to the 'Love, Cole' run. The BCC congrats director Ann M. Ring, and cast, Isabelle Archer, Sheila Furtado, Rob Minshall, Chris O'Sullivan, Bill Salem, Chris Schulz, Sara Sneed, and Lisa Zinck Taylor. Special thanks to the production team - Patti Hughes, Dennis Marchant, Martha Jason, Linda Stevens, Jessica Anne McDowell, Joshua Trott, Sonia Schonng, John Carlisle, Christy Morris, and Jean Jackson.
