Thanksgiving Day: It is fitting for God's people to offer public thanks for all the gifts we have received. The bountiful produce of the earth is a visible sign of the many blessings God wants to shower on us through Christ. Our God also wants us to share the goods of the earth with all people.

Update from the Adult Faith Commission

To help celebrate the Year of St. Joseph, remembering that Joseph was a faithful protector of and provider for the Holy Family, last spring the Adult Faith Commission for the Archdiocese of Moncton invited parishioners to help those less fortunate by sponsoring a plot or donating gift cards or seeds to the Peter McKee Community Garden. All food grown at the Peter McKee Community Garden goes towards feeding food insecure families. Alicia Clarkson, garden coordinator has advised us that our appeal generated a great response, which included about half a dozen sponsored garden plots, at $200 each.

Also in the spring, the Adult Faith Commission appealed for donations of canned soup in support of Isthmus, (formerly Blessings in a Backpack) an organization which provides healthy weekend snacks for food insecure families in 31 area schools during the school year. They have begun their program again this year, and last Friday, received the 1,121 cans of soup collected in our parishes. Tara Stirrat, the volunteer spearheading this initiative, says the numbers of children they support are now over 800, so the need continues. If you are interested in donating again to this worthy cause, drop the soup at your parish, and ask them to contact Mark Mahoney at St. Elizabeth of the Trinity to arrange pick up.

On behalf of the folks who work hard to provide for those most in need, the Adult Faith Commission wishes to thank you for your support of these initiatives.

"Truly I tell you, just as you did it to one of the least of these who are members of my family, you did it to me." (Matthew 25:40)

Faith Experiments Express Mark the dates! Faith Experiments Express (for children in grades 1-6) will return this year with sessions planned for November 1st and November 29th at 6:00 pm. Register with Karen at 387-4198 or Trevor.

People and Planet First

As we end the Season of Creation, let's pray for social and environmental justice

The Season of Creation, which lasts from September 1 to October 4, is a time for the global Christian family to unite in prayer and action for the Earth, our shared home. This year, in the face of continuing environmental destruction, Development and Peace's People and Planet First campaign is seeking to ensure that Canada and Canadian corporations are not complicit in any violations of the rights of the people and the planet while operating abroad.

To learn more about the campaign and to pray and act for the preservation of Creation, visit Development and Peace's new website. There, you will find a multitude of resources to help you live the Season of Creation to the fullest and to mobilize for putting people and planet first. Especially take a look at our compilation of prayers celebrating the Earth and invoking its protection! Visit <https://devp.org/en> for more.

Mondays @ The Movies:

The film discussion series will meet again (via Zoom) on October 18th at 10:30 am to discuss M. Night Shyamalan's film "The Village." Mondays @ The Movies aims to connect faith with the popular films we watch. Contact Trevor or Karen at catechism.set@gmail.com or 387-4198.

Interesting bit of trivia...did you know the feast of Thanksgiving has been officially observed as an annual holiday in Canada since November 6th, 1879?!? Some years later, on January 31st, 1957, the Governor General of Canada at the time (Vincent Massey) issued a proclamation stating, "A Day of General Thanksgiving to Almighty God for the bountiful harvest with which Canada has been blessed – to be observed on the second Monday in October." I understand that many in 2021 observe Thanksgiving as a secular celebration but for people of faith it would be difficult for us to give thanks for our blessings without calling to mind the gifts bestowed upon us by God.

I truly love this time of year when warm sweaters are hauled out of storage while our parishes are decorated with corn stalks, pumpkins, other assorted gourdes, cornucopia...all symbols of a bountiful harvest. In our part of the world at least, the trees turn various shades of red, orange, and yellow, while our sunsets and sunrises seem to take on an almost magical golden hue I associate with autumn. While I try to always remain grateful for that which God has provided, I have difficulty sustaining a state of gratitude 24/7 for 12 months of the year, so the feast of Thanksgiving serves as a happy reminder to me of all I should be grateful for. I may not have everything I want but perhaps therein lies a message related to the difference between what I want or feel entitled to and what I need.

I have wonderful memories of Thanksgivings celebrated with my parents, siblings, grandparents, aunts, uncles, cousins, friends, and alternately I have experienced Thanksgivings isolated from those I loved. These Thanksgivings of scarcity were important because they helped me to understand in a deeper way the goodness laid out before me which I take for granted.

The term "Eucharist" actually means "Thanksgiving," and throughout the COVID-19 pandemic this has taken on a different meaning for me. At the Last Supper, we hear how Jesus gave thanks and praise for the meal they were about to eat, and our participation in Sunday Eucharist is an excellent way we can express our gratitude or Jesus and his sacrifice.

Thank you, Jesus for your offering. We are much obliged.

Throughout the pandemic there have been many Sundays I have not been present at mass to celebrate and receive Eucharist, and throughout this time I have learned something. While I have remained acutely aware of this separation from one another, I have developed a greater sense of gratitude for those times in my life when nothing separated me from Eucharist. Far from feeling entitled to it, I have come to understand its importance in my life in a new way and seems to me a good example of absence making the heart grow fonder. Maybe this is not your experience, but the pain of this separation has made me more grateful for Jesus' gift to us, in the same way that the pain of separation from that which we love should lead us to be more thankful for them.

Brother David Steindl-Rast is a Benedictine Monk who speaks publicly on interfaith issues, and he claims all humans seek happiness, but "It is not happiness that makes us grateful, it's gratefulness that makes us happy. Becoming aware is that every moment we live is a gift. We have not earned it, brought it about in any way, or can we ensure we have another moment."

There is much Good News in Brother David's reflections, and he goes on to say that even when we miss an opportunity to be grateful, another opportunity will be given to us. Despite living through the uprooting and chaos associated with a global pandemic, we continue to be presented with opportunities to recognize, grasp, appreciate, and hold up in gratitude. Happy Thanksgiving.

Let Us Love One Another: A Three-Part Journey of Reconciliation

The recent, and continuing, uncovering of the horrific treatment of some of our Indigenous brothers and sisters at Residential Schools has left many of us struggling to deal with all the emotions that this has evoked. Feelings of anger, disillusion, and uncertainty as to how to move forward as a church are among many things we are trying to sort out. With this in mind, we are offering three evenings of prayer and discernment where people can come together and come to God to find a path forward. The three themes of these gatherings will be Reconciliation, Healing, and Remembrance and Promise, and the dates are as follows:

Wednesday, Wednesday, October 20th / Wednesday, November 24th. These will take place at Holy Family Church in Moncton and will begin at 7:00pm each night. All are welcome. Please note that we are not here to speak on anyone's behalf, but rather, to acknowledge that something went terribly wrong; to discern our part in it, and to voice our public concern in prayer.

WORLD FOOD DAY OCTOBER 16TH

A World Food Day has been promoted by the Food and Agriculture Organization since 1981. The Church is concerned about the issue of hunger in the world, remembering the words of the Son of Man on the last judgment of the nations, ".....I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink...." (Mt. 25:35).
