G & G Produce

Always one of the most impressive presentations at the market, G & G Produce occupies the big corner of Main St and Row P.

Geary Waldrop and Gina Silvey were unimpressed with local supermarket fruit and vegetable selections, so in 1985, decided to bring farm-fresh food directly to the public. With Geary having grown up on a farm and their direct access to other local farms, they decided it was time to be self employed. After getting their business up and running at the Flagler Farmer's Market and City Island Market in Daytona, they moved their operations to Daytona Flea Market and have remained one of the anchor stores here for over 30 years.

You can trust the G & G staff for good advice on how to select and prepare the produce they're selling. Did you know that the perfect watermelon should have a nice green rind with a yellow belly (the side that rests on the ground while growing) and a dry stem? These things ensure the melon is sweet, ripe and ready to enjoy!

In season for the fall months will be Plant City strawberries, jumbo Holiday seedless grapes, apples, winter squash varieties, pumpkins, melons, citrus, corn and more.

G & G specializes in 'Vine Ripe Beef Steak Tomatoes, Year Round' with most of their produce coming directly from Florida farmers. When in season, fresh Georgia peaches and other produce from nearby states is also available.

The G & G Staff: Bruce, Dustin, Marie and Regina
