Jesus said, “Amen, I say to you, one of you will betray me, one who is eating with me.”

In today’s Gospel passage from St. Mark we read about the Last Supper and the last events and moments in the earthly life of Jesus. We learn about the pride and wrath of the chief priest and scribes; the envy and lack of understanding of people about why Jesus was so loved; the betrayal of a close friend; the wisdom and counsel of Jesus for his close friends; the lack of courage and fortitude of beloved followers; and the lust for power and brutality of the Roman authorities. We also learn of the love of Jesus for those who hated him, who lost faith in him, who killed him and for all of us. It is a story we have heard many times. It is a story that has been repeated over and over again since the Resurrection of Jesus. Before we are quick to condemn all involved in the story, we must ask if it is a story that has played out, to some extent, in each of our lives? These last few days of Lent and the celebration of the Triduum [Holy Thursday, Good Friday and the Easter Vigil] are a good time to ask “Have I, in some way, betrayed Jesus?”

The Lunch Bunch will meet every 2nd Tuesday. The next meeting is Tuesday, April 10 at 11:30am. It will be an Easter Gathering. Ham will be served. Please bring side dishes or desserts to share. Everyone is welcome!

H.O.P.E Clinic reports a total of $680.31 has been received from St. Pius X in baby bottles so far. Please continue to bring in your bottle when it is full.
