

About Us

The Next Picture Show (TNPS) is a non-profit community fine arts center located in the heart of historic downtown Dixon, IL. Established in 2004, the art center occupies an 1854 building that underwent complete restoration. Recreating the 1898 façade look and retaining the original wood floors, tin ceilings and internal structures where possible creates a unique and special backdrop for the art, music and literary events held during the year.

Mission

Our mission is to nurture, develop, educate, foster the arts, and galvanize artists and patrons within the community.

Education

The Lower Level serves as our primary classroom as well as a place for specialty and student exhibitions.

Watercolor Advanced Class

Tuesdays

1:30pm – 3:30pm

Art Instructor: Graydon Cafarella

Six Week Tuition:
Members: $99.00
Non-Members: $125.00

Flex Schedule – You may start at any time.

Ages: 16 and older (Exceptions can be made for experienced students)

About the Class

This workshop is for the advanced watercolor artists that want to explore more complex painting subjects & techniques. When you are finished with these lessons you will realize that the finished painting is only a result of the preparation you put into it before paint hits the paper. All classes are on a six-week cycle. Need to take a day or maybe a week off for a vacation, birthday or rainy day? No problem. Register for six classes and use them as you wish.

Instructor

Graydon Cafarella graduated from the American Academy of Art in Chicago and worked many years as an artist/art supervisor for R H Donnelley Corp. He has exhibited in Chicago area art fairs and gallery exhibits since 1974, and was gallery chairman at Vogt Visual Arts Center in Tinley Park, IL.
