Jasper! Never been there? Neither have most of us. Jasper is a small town in the middle of Jasper National Park, In that respect it's similar to Banff.

Marmot Basin is the local ski area, a short shuttle away from town, much like Sunshine is to Banff. They have 3000 vertical feet, starting at 5570' above sea level. 1675 acres which isn't too big, but have a look at that trail map, there's more than enough skiing there to keep us happy for a week. We have 6 day lift tickets included. Check it out: https://www.skimarmot.com/

Where do we stay? We've reserved at the Fairmont Jasper Park Lodge. You know the company that runs the Banff springs and Chateau Lake Louise and the Chateau Frontenac... Yeah, that Fairmont. This place is a little more down to earth, but very much top shelf. The buffet breakfast is included! http://www.fairmont.com/jasper/

Other activities? There is a curing club, perhaps we can try that again? Dog sledding? A wildlife center? An ice canyon walk? Lots of possibilities.

How do we get there? We have 35 seats on hold for these flights:

March 4 depart Cleveland 7:40am, arrive Chicago 8:03am March 4 depart Chicago 9:05am, arrive Edmonton 11:45am

March 11 depart Edmonton 8:05am, arrive Houston 2:2-pm March 11 depart Houston 4:30pm, arrive Cleveland 8:20pm

There is a ~4 hour bus ride form the Edmonton airport to Jasper. This will be coordinated with the flights for the group. If you get your own air to Edmonton, you must assure that your flights arrive no later than ours so you can catch our bus. Be aware that flights do change without consideration for these things, it's just what the airlines do. Please consider arriving the night before to assure that you catch our bus to Jasper.

Coming back, we will spend the last night in Edmonton so independent flight times are not a concern.

On the outbound, we will arrange a motel stay near the Cleveland airport as we have in the past.
