Mary Taylor Player

Mary Taylor Player, known to all of her family and friends as "Tiny," passed away on Saturday, February 27, 2015, at her home in Springfield, Missouri. She was 105 years old.

Tiny was born in Vivian on February 15, 1910. She moved to Oil City, Louisiana, as a young girl and in high school met Bill Player. They married in 1928 and made a life together in Oil City. Tiny lost her husband in 1982, but she continued to live in Oil City until 2006, when she moved to Springfield.

Tiny enjoyed great health all her life. She mowed her own yard and cared for her garden well into her 90's.

A graveside service for her will be held at Lakeview Memorial Garden Cemetery in Oil City on Thursday, March 5, 2015 at 3:00 p.m.

She is survived by her two daughters, Betty Markham and Diane Johnson and husband William, eight grandchildren and numerous great grandchildren and great great grandchildren. Tiny had many friends in Oil City, Springfield and elsewhere. She was greatly loved.
