Youth Royalty Information

Iowa Llama Association Royalty Guidelines:

- A candidate for Llama Queen and Master Herdsman will be no younger than 15 and no older than 19 years of age during their reign.
- Up to 3 Princesses and Jr. Herdsmen will be chosen. Applicants must be between the ages of 10 and 19 during their reign.
- A Queen/Master Herdsman must have been a Princess/Jr. Herdsman at least one previous year and in good standing. (Following all existing guidelines)
- There is no limit to how many times an applicant can be a Princess/Jr. Herdsman.
- There is no limit to how many times an applicant can be a Queen/Master Herdsman.
- Family of applicant must be ILA members in good standing.
- Applicant must be actively showing llamas.
- Applications must be postmarked by March 31st of each year.
- Royalty will be chosen and notified by the Royalty Committee by April 15th each year.
- Length of reign – One year, from the Heartland Show in Spring each year through the end of that same year.
- Each applicant, if chosen for the royalty court, will be required to volunteer at three of the four llama shows in Iowa. Attendance at the Heartland Show is mandatory for all Royalty Court members.
- Dress code: Royalty is representing the Iowa Llama Association and all llama exhibitors in the state of Iowa. At all times your appearance is to be neat, clean and appropriate for the duties you are performing with crown and sash for the Queen, sash for the Princesses, and a ball cap for the Herdsman.
- Failure to perform the duties of Royalty by any Court Member will result in their dismissal from the Royalty Court. One warning will be given prior to dismissal.

Iowa Llama Association Royalty Duties

- ILA King, Queen, Princes, and Princesses:
 - Elected ILA Royalty members are required to volunteer at 3 out of the 4 llama shows held in Iowa each year. Royalty members (individually or as a group) must contact each show superintendent or an ILA Royalty Committee member to volunteer for a position.
 - Suggested ideas are as follows:
 - Hand out ribbons and trophies
 - Check-in class participants / Ring steward
 - Data input / Clerking assistance
 - Reset performance courses
 - Show set up / tear down
 - Committee Members recognize that ILA Royalty is often showing their own llamas at these events. Show superintendents and Committee Members will work with the ILA Royalty to accommodate these situations on a case-by-case basis.
 - Attend three of the following four shows held in the state of Iowa.
 - Heartland Llama Show – Mason City, IA (Must attend this one)
 - Summer Solstice Llama Show – Oskaloosa, IA (location can vary)
 - Iowa State Fair – Des Moines, IA
 - Fall Harvest Show – Waterloo, IA
 - Positively represent the Iowa Llama Association at any llama function invited to while wearing your royalty items.
 - Have knowledge of llamas so when asked questions by the public you will be able to answer.
