

McComb, Ruth K.

Ruth Katherine Bouck McComb, 84, of Caseville, passed away suddenly on Friday, July 8, 2005, at Courtney Manor Nursing Home in Bad Axe. Ruth was born May 20, 1921 in Detroit to the late Clyde and Clara McDougal. She married Orville Bouck in 1946. Together they lived in Detroit until moving to Caseville in 1975. Orville died in 1984. She later married Manly McComb of Caro on May 21, 1988 at the Caseville United Methodist Church. Ruth was a homemaker who loved to sew, crochet and read. She was a member of the Caseville Retirement Club, Pinnebog United Methodist Church and the Caseville Library Club. Ruth is survived by her husband, Manly; son, Thomas Bouck and his wife, Christine, of Southfield; and daughter, Bonnie Snyder, of Illinois; step-son Paul McComb of Arizona; grandchildren, Edward Bouck, of Arizona, and Joni and her husband, Fergel Amayo, of Georgia; step-granddaughters, Melissa and her husband, Eddie Matos, of Arizona, and April and her husband, Dan Dixon, of California; one step-great-grandson, Ian; and sisters-in-law, Shirley McComb and Harriet Collins. She was preceded in death by her husband, Orville Bouck; and her brother, Capt. Herbert McDougal. Funeral services will be at 11 a.m. on Monday, July 11, 2005, at the Pinnebog United Methodist Church with the Rev. David Freeland officiating. Burial will be in Acacia Park Cemetery in Beverly Hills, Michigan. Visitation will be 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. today at the Champagne Funeral Chapel of Caseville, and from 10 a.m. until the time of service on Monday at the church. Memorials may be made to the Pinnebog United Methodist Church. Condolences may be shared online at www.cfcCaseville.com.
