Dear Neighbors,

I have enjoyed meeting and getting to know my dad's friends and neighbors, over the past year and a half that I have been caring for my dad Clif (Clifton Haynes), in your very friendly, sharing and caring community.

I want to thank you on behalf of my father and myself for your kind support of us both during his illness. Your thoughtful words, and prayers were so appreciated and did lift our spirits. To John & Maria, Debbie & Wally and Dad's good friend Bob; you enriched his life, he so enjoyed your easy going, but always there, friendship.

Since dad has passed I have heard so many stories about him and tributes to him from his friends that have become mine and many neighbors that knew dad but I had not met. I've loved hearing about his exploits (not the scary ones though), how he was so helpful and enjoyed as a friend & neighbor. I know I speak for Clif's whole family in that we lived far away with an easy mind (right up until he couldn't mow the lawn!), because we knew that he wanted to be at home with the friends he cared about and who cared about him.

To Janet and Lisa thank you for getting me out of the house and involved in the community. Jeff for making me laugh on the days when I was desperate for a break at the end of the day and introducing me to your lovely mom.

CLUBHOUSE NEWS

Not much going on this month at the clubhouse. I will urge all to participate in the neighborhood garage sale that will be taking place on February 18th. Roe Valente has volunteered to help with the signs and the placement of them. She is a seasoned garage sale shopper and I am glad she is helping with this sale. We will advertise that it will begin at 8am on that Saturday to 3pm. Hopefully all who participate will have a successful sale!!

I will not be planning a St. Patrick's Day party this year, but if anyone wishes to plan one in my absence please feel free. I am working more than usual now and I don't have the time to plan this party. Sorry!!!

Our next Wine Down Friday will be held on Friday, February 17th. Janet and Tony Evans are hosting. Thanks to the Evans for volunteering their home for this event!!!!

p.s. if anyone else wants to volunteer for the next Wine Down Friday, please let me know - let's keep this monthly event going!

Hello fellow Residents, Spring is on its way we are very fortunate living in this part of the world as we do not have to shovel that horrible white stuff. However, we do have our own challenges when it comes to Home Maintenance. A lot of the neighbors are using shallow well water for irrigation and as a result, staining will occur on the walls of your property. There are very effective products available at the hardware stores that will remove this.

In addition, many roofs are subject to getting black with mold, this is unsightly and believe it or not increases your energy cost.

These two items are going to be the focus of my attention during the next few weeks. If your property is in need of maintenance then now is the time to take care of it before I come around with my camera.

Remember we all enjoy the benefits of our home prices appreciating. So please all do your part.

Thanks Tony

It's A Good Thing

I'm back! Packed away Christmas items, said good-bye to out-of-state company, got furniture back in order from being moved to accommodate the tree, etc., and house clean again! Hope you all had wonderful holidays.

Wow, is this really February? Really? Winter? Really? One would never know it by the winter we are having! Much as it may make you feel; like it, don't get out in that garden yet! We WILL have our winter! As you know sometimes nature is deceiving?

However, those springtime "to do" lists certainly can start being planned. It's easier to accomplish it all with a list. Just do two or three items a day or a week. It's less of a challenge that way.

Speaking of being challenged, start another list that's only about doing things for enjoyment. For the days you're not doing something on your "Springtime to do list", do some on your "enjoyment list", whether it's walking in the park, going shopping, taking a hike, or working out at the gym, or curling up with a good book to read [on a rainy day]. You get the idea. There are so many things to do if you really think about it, especially going through paper disposal projects for 2016.

In fact, I've thought of so much to do, I have so many lists my family laughs at me. [For Christmas, in my stocking, was a nice notepad. It was titled, "The List"]. I love it! But, lists or no lists, remember it IS the winter season and with it there is a purpose. One just has to find their OWN purpose fit the season.

In closing, also this month, remember Valentine's Day! Remember when we were kids in grade school and we made [or brought] all those tiny Valentine cards to all go in that big Valentine box? Then we waited [and hoped] for our name to be called to received one and we envied the kid that got the most? Remember? Make one for a friend, and mail it! Bet they'd get a good laugh! Sign it "Remember when?" It will make you feel good too because, IT'S A GOOD THING!

See you in March

My Day Out

We started the year out with lunch at The Rusty Pelican. The food was exceptional. The water views and atmosphere were wonderful. Definitely a place to celebrate special events. There were eight ladies attending.

For February My Day Out will go to St Pete to see the Chihuly Collection and the Morean Arts Center Glass Studio & Hot Shop. Please let me know by February 9th and we will go February 13. Cost approximately $18.

Because of lack of interest for the couples dinner cruise it will be postponed to some later date.

Hope you will join me for the Chihuly experience.

CHAIR YOGA

Monday Mornings at 9:30 am

Chair yoga offers a profound range of physical, mental and deeper benefits. Many people cannot get down or up from a floor mat. Chair yoga is a perfect way to receive all the benefits of yoga; stretching, toning, stress reduction, harmony and balance all while sitting on a chair. It is a great pick-up and a marvelous blend of gentleness, precision and spirituality.

If any of you are interested and have questions, please feel free to call Karen Solovei at 508 735-5049 [cell].
