

Dear Prospective TAG supporter,

TAG – Theater Arts Guild staged their first production Waltz Dream in 1949, right here in the High Desert Center for The Arts Theater. The Center, a preserved WWII USO, has been TAG’s home since the group was first formed. From 1949 to 2011, it has continued to produce up to five (5) high quality shows each season and we intend to continue. All of our productions are selected to offer drama and comedies for an adult audience.

The goals of TAG are simple:

- To enjoy our craft ➤To entertain ourselves and others ➤To pursue professionalism
- To support all of the performing, visual and literary arts in our community.

Your support of TAG is greatly appreciated! Consider joining us as an active production participant or support staff member.

The Benefits include:

- Working and socializing with other theater lovers – two meetings (actually parties) per year.
- Receive production audition information ➤Receive the “Tag Line” – our newsletter.
- Meet community leaders & help promote theater to the community.
- $2 discount on all TAG productions.

Dues are nominal and put to good use by:

- Paying for play rights, sets, costumes, programs, tickets and a million other necessary staging items.
- Paying our rent to the theater, for practice rooms to rehearse and the stage on which to perform.
- Paying for newsletters, theater reminders, and web site to market our performances

Dues are not used:

- To pay our production directors, actors and support staff, who give willing of their time and efforts.

Consider becoming a Life time member.

Join our life-long supporters that aid us to keep Quality Theater in the High Desert. If this sounds like a group you would like to be a part of, we invite you to join TAG. And if not, continue to support TAG by renewing your TAG membership and coming to “The Show”.

Lance Christiansen,

President
