Thank you to all who helped make our event a success!!

A special THANK YOU to...

- The Evans teachers and staff for helping communicate basket raffle information to our families!
- Mrs. Havrilla and Mrs. Harvie for working tirelessly with H&SA Board Members to host great events for our students!
- The generous Evans families for donating to the classroom baskets!
- Volunteers who donated their time to the Community Service Committee, which helped earn our Grand Prize Disney Tickets!
- All our donors! We encourage you to frequent the businesses and vendors who donated to our event! Please let them know you appreciate their support of our community!
- Our Basket Raffle Volunteers! From verifying business addresses for solicitation, picking up donations, and helping put baskets together, to offering words of encouragement and support, we are grateful! The H&SA would not be successful without your help!
- And lastly, to our personal families, who have put up with houses full of baskets and who have picked up the slack at home while we spent countless hours working on the raffle! Thank you!

The Basket Raffle Committee works very hard to make sure this night runs smoothly, but unexpected obstacles can occur at any time. We apologize in advance for any delays, mispronunciations, misspellings, and/or technical difficulties that may occur during this event. We hope you had a wonderful time!
