A Note from Rick: Markets continue to rebound this week at TLA. The biggest market change on Tuesday was in slaughter cattle and cows. Both markets were considerably better and getting the slaughter plants back open was the cause. Hopefully, this market will continue to stabilize and get back to reasonable prices. The other significant change on Tuesday was the hay market. The average quality coarse hay dropped off significantly. Thursday's Special Springer Sale was better than expected, in my opinion. Prices and activity in the market were a little stronger than last month. We are excited to be able to move forward with our upcoming horse sales. However, we do have to ensure that social distancing is possible inside of the arena and our restaurant will have to be at half capacity. Because of this, we are asking that no children under the age of 16 attend. At this time because of the Governor's mandate, we cannot have a social gathering and ask that only those here for the sale attend. We have always welcomed children & spectators at TLA and this decision was not made easily. We look forward to the time when we can all gather again and pack the arena. But during this time, we have to do our part to ensure that our sales can continue. See you at TLA!
