OLD BUSINESS:

>> The Booster Club has begun researching new scoreboards, and a representative from Daktronics attended a meeting a few months ago to answer questions. Athletic Director Norm Garrett said, based on the preliminary estimate from the company, the approximate cost for a new football scoreboard is $150,000 and approximately $35,000 for a baseball scoreboard. Garrett felt the baseball scoreboard should be our first priority. The Booster Club Board members discussed the need to solicit sponsors to help with the purchase, when the time comes.

>> Molly Bickford was finalizing the date for the Red and Gold Bash, trying to avoid a conflict with Newman Night and a girls' basketball tournament.

>> There was some discussion about water access for Big Al's Shake-ups to be able to sell at upcoming sporting events.

>> Merv Baker Scholarship -- Board members who had not yet voted cast their votes for the Merv Baker Scholarship recipients. These winners will be announced at Senior Awards Night.

NEW BUSINESS:

>> Jeff Vanatta got about seven new sponsorship signs up at the baseball field. He also will be putting signs up at Trojan Hill for track. Vanatta said he plans to work on the sponsorship program, possibly revamping it for next year.

>> Kim Sherwood suggested that the Board consider getting "Proud Sponsor of the Trojan Booster Club" signs for sponsoring businesses to display in their windows/businesses.

>> A THANK YOU to Krissta Newby, who got the concession stand up and running for track season.
