

Groth, Glenn

Glenn E. Groth, 92, of Cass City, died unexpectedly on Thursday, January 20, 2005, in his home. He was born November 15, 1912 in Warren Township to Albert and Ida (Talowitzky) Groth. He married Jacqualene L. Wagner on July 12, 1973 in Caro. She died December 29, 1993. Glenn served in the U.S. Army. He was a farmer and later also worked for Evans Products as a welder. He enjoyed working on cars. Glenn is survived by his children, Judith Muntz and her husband, Gerald, of Bad Axe, Harold Groth, of Cass City, Deana Mathews, of Fort Carson, Colorado, Dianne Cook, of Cass City, Gaillynn Wagner and her husband, Mike, of Midland, Brad Groth and his wife, Gloria, of Midland, Michelle Groth, of Cass City, Randy Groth, of Cass City; 14 grandchildren; many great-grandchildren; sister, Violet Czerwinski; several nieces and nephews. Glenn was preceded in death by his daughter, Marie Young; brothers, Arnold, Harvey, Fred, and Martin; sister, Myrtle Sadro. A private family memorial service will be conducted at a later date. Mr. Groth is to be buried in Valley Cemetery, Ubly. Memorials may be made to the family discretionary fund and may be mailed or dropped off at Kranz Funeral Home, 6850 Main Street, Cass City. Arrangements by Kranz Funeral Home, Cass City.