Good of the Legion – Sal Abbaccoco raised a question regarding the procedures the Post follows upon the death of a Post member. He felt procedures should be improved to prevent the mix up that occurred with the death of Albert Warn. He also wanted clarification as to procedure for sending flowers for deceased relatives of Post members. It was stated that the Post's practice is to send flowers to deceased relatives of the members immediate family, such as parents, and children, brothers and sisters. Sal Abbaccoco stated that Post and Building corporation should conduct their activities in accordance to the rules set forth in the By-Laws Manual. If the By-Laws are not to be followed, By-Laws should be amended accordingly.

Meeting closed at 9:35 pm – A moment of silence was observed in memory of deceased member Albert Warn.
