Dan Charles reported the bridge going to the 200 yard range is repaired, limestone has been put down on Pistol Ranges #2 and #3, and numbers were put on the pistol ranges for identification.

Mike Wyckoff discussed proposed changes to the By-Laws and Range Rules. Change #1 required Board approval for use of Pavilion and Clubhouse for member's private functions. Change #2 prohibits the use of alcohol on club property. Second reading and vote for approval/disapproval will occur at the December meeting.

US Law Shield seminar will be on December 4th at 6:00 PM. Registration link is on the website at gvsc101.com.

Adrienne Cervone submitted a bill for reimbursement of expenses associated with the Fall Festival. Motion was made and approved to reimburse her.

Dan Charles submitted bills for purchase of screws to repair the 200 yard bridge, purchase of wood to construct a roof on Pistol Range #3, expense for chainsaw repair, purchase of numbers for the pistol ranges and purchase of donuts for work day. Motion was made and approved to reimburse him.

Frank Bair raised question of targets stands on the ranges. Previous history shows target stands are quickly shot up when provided. Recommended to him to bring furring strips and cardboard when he is using the ranges and to take his equipment with him.

Mike Wyckoff reported the homeowner at the top of the hill would not allow Comcast on his property. Without his permission, Comcast cannot proceed any further with cable installation to the club.

Adjournment: Meeting was adjourned at 7:30 PM.
