WE WELCOME Rev. Ken Macari:

Ken Macari is an Honorably Retired Teaching Elder of Elizabeth Presbytery. He retired in 2016 after 21 years from the Community Presbyterian Church in Edison. He occasionally preaches in Elizabeth and Philadelphia Presbyteries. A native of Philadelphia, PA, Ken served the Hermon Church under the Philly Elevated Train from 1977 to 1989. After serving the North Park Church in Buffalo, NY for six years, Ken took the call to Edison, in Advent of 1995. He met his wife, Linda, at Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary in Massachusetts. They were married in March of 1977. They have two children: Sarah and her family who live in Howell, NJ; and Peter who lives in Astoria, Queens, NY.

Ken has been very active in Elizabeth Presbytery serving on various committees in the areas of immigrant new church development, Committee on Preparation for Ministry and briefly as Pastor to Pastors in 2013. He currently chairs the Greystone Legacy Commission also serving on the New Hope Grants Committee. Ken served three times as a Commissioner to the General Assembly, supervised nearly 20 Princeton seminarians and earned a Doctor of Ministry degree from Gordon-Conwell focusing on Preaching from the Epistle to the Colossians. He has strong interests in small group spiritual formation and supporting a local church's vision for community outreach (especially to those new to the USA).
