In addition to the completed application, each applicant must submit an essay outlining your goals and objectives and other information that may be helpful for the selection committee. Please do not include information that you have already submitted in this application. The essay should be no longer than two typed or written pages (one sided). DO NOT include your name or any reference that would identify yourself in the essay. Doing so could cause your application to be rejected. This is a blind selection.

If you are selected as a recipient, you will be required to forward TIGA confirmation from a college showing that you have enrolled and are pursuing a degree in agriculture. Once these conditions have been met, the money will be forwarded to your college. If you choose not to enroll in college or not to pursue a degree in agriculture, the money will be given to an alternate.

"I hereby give permission to use the information provided on this application for recognition and reporting purposes if selected to receive a scholarship. I will supply high school and/or college transcripts if deemed necessary by the committee".
