

WRITER'S READING SERIES PRESENTS: Joan Jobe Smith

Date: Wednesday

March 21, 2018

Time: 1:30PM

Long Beach City College
Liberal Arts Campus
Location: T Bldg. Room 2377

The Marian Sims Baughn Center welcomes poet Joan Jobe Smith.

Joan Jobe Smith, founding editor of Pearl and Bukowski Review, worked 7 years as a go-go girl before graduating from CSULB and the UCI MFA Program. Since 1950 her art, poetry, prose, cooking columns, memoirs and reviews have been published in more than 1000 literary journals, newspapers, anthologies. With her poet husband Fred Voss she has done 7 reading tours of UK and Scotland, debuting at Aldeburgh Poetry Festival, 1991, and appeared at in 2012 at the Hull Literature Festival and the Betsey Trotwood pub in London. She is also a Pushcart honoree with 23 poetry books.

Please join us for a captivating afternoon with Joan Jobe Smith!

Poetry Reading & Book Signing

Admission: Free

Books available at event
cash, credit and debit cards welcome

4901 E. Carson St. Long Beach CA
Call 562-243-7114 for more info.