

On April 29th at the 10:55 AM service, Brad Shinaman (chair of the Staff/Parish Committee) announced the appointment of Dr. Tim Roberts to serve as pastor of our church. His first Sunday service will be in July.

Dr. Roberts has been married for 28 years to Karen Roberts who is currently serving as pastor of the Wilkesboro UMC. They have two daughters. Katie is married to Kevin Allen and is mother of Kennedy, who is 6 months old. The Allens live in Winston Salem. Their second daughter is Emily who lives in Asheville.

Dr. Roberts has a B.A. from Pfeiffer University in Misenheimer, NC, a MDiv. from Hood Theological Seminary in Salisbury, NC and a DMin. from United Theological Seminary in Dayton, OH.

Dr. Roberts has been a pastor in the Western North Carolina Conference since 1996 and has served in rural and suburban, small and large, and traditional and contemporary churches.

Dr. Roberts states that he is excited about our journey together and is praying for us and our entire community. He is confident that God will be glorified in our mutual love and service to Christ and His Church.
