Natural Family Planning Awareness Week- July 22- 28, 2018

Testimony from an NFP Couple

“Two years after joining the Catholic Church, my wife and I began practicing Natural Family Planning. I found that the chastity required to get through the periods of abstinence caused profound changes in me ... I became grateful for all God had given me, most of all for my wife. My appreciation for her and all that she gives me grew, improving an already good 20-year marriage.”

(Fletcher Doyle, “My Slogan—Practice Saved Sex!”

Available at: www.usccb.org/issues-and-action/marriage-and-family/natural-family-planning/awareness-week/upload/Fletcher-Doyle.pdf)

Testimony from another NFP Couple

“As we lived the NFP lifestyle, we began to realize that all of our reasons for avoiding pregnancy were ‘earthly’ – we would need a new car, a bigger house, and more money for everything....We are so grateful that we now have the kind of marital union that God had planned for us! It has changed our lives so much that we became NFP teachers to spread the good news.”

(Jennifer and Frank Ricard, “Signs of Grace,” available at: www.usccb.org/issues-and-action/marriage-and-family/natural-family-planning/what-is-nfp/couples-stories/upload/Jennifer-Ricard-Signs-of-Grace.pdf)

Don't Get Scammed!

Scammers are now posing as priests and other clergy. In this latest scam, you might receive an email that appears to be from your Pastor or another priest that you may know. The scammer would ask you to help someone in need by purchasing a gift card, and then providing the codes to that card to the scammer who is posing as clergy.

Here's how to protect yourself from being scammed:

- 1 – Know that scammers are out there. Be suspicious of any request for funds of any type via an email message. Verify any request with a call to the person who supposedly sent it.
- 2 – Know that any email from a priest should be from a diocesan or parish email account. Messages sent from free services, such as Gmail or Yahoo, are more likely to be scammers.
- 3 – Know that priests will NEVER ask for financial transactions via email.

CATHOLICISM THE PIVOTAL PLAYERS

Summer Bible Study – St Francis Video

6:30PM

Wednesday, August 1st and August 8th

Join us for a special two week summer bible study about St. Francis. We will be watching Bishop Robert Barron's "Pivotal Players" video about St Francis. We will learn how this great Catholic reformer accomplished the command of God to "rebuild my Church." After the video we will have an informal discussion. Part 1 will be August 1st, and Part 2 will be August 8th. If you have any questions, ask Jev Voight at JevVoight@gmail.com.

(Journey from the lovely streets and basilicas of Assisi and Gubbio to the gorgeous, remote monasteries of La Verna and Eremito delle Carceri with Bishop Barron as he explores the extraordinary life of St. Francis of Assisi. Bishop Barron explains how a life of true authenticity and goodness can shake the foundations of the world by examining the little friar from Umbria who became one of the most important and influential figures of the Middle Ages)
