DESCRIPTION: The H-90 was part of Ben Pearson's H Series of bows that came out in 1969. The H-90 is rare in that it was made only one year (1969). Great looking and performing recurve with many high-end features. Very comfortable pistol grip with thumb rest. Bow is in excellent condition. Bubinga riser with contrasting laminates. Bow has no delamination; no cracks; limbs are straight. Double-sided overlay tips. Beveled arrow shelf. Overlays and tips are in great condition. No drilled holes; No chips, dings or cracks. No stress lines or crazing. A few minor scratches and nicks here and there. Decal is in minty condition. This bow was put to a stress test (held at full draw for 16 hours to make sure the old glues still held and no stress cracks developed. Comes with a rug rest and side plate as shown, and a new string.
