

JOURNEY FOR FREEDOM

Defection from Communist Czechoslovakia to America

Please join us as author and Patriotic professional speaker, Peter Vodenka, vividly describes his heroic escape from Communist Czechoslovakia with his wife, four-year-old daughter and two-year-old son in the middle of a cold, dark, rainy night while being chased by border guards with machine guns, spotlights, and dogs.

From the dream of a teenage boy longing for freedom in a small foreign country years ago---to living free in America, calling the American flag HIS FLAG and the Star Spangled Banner HIS ANTHEM, this is the ultimate version of the American dream.

Peter has the uncanny ability to pull his audience directly into the story as he describes the events leading up to his defection, the defection process, and the beauty of life in America today. You will understand how we, as Americans, take our freedoms for granted and why Peter risked his family's lives and gave up everything he had for the opportunity to come to America.
