Golf

The greatest female athlete in history

Golf. Basketball. Hurdles. Javelin. High Jump. Boxing. Baseball. Babe Didrikson Zaharias did them all!

In this dynamic 45-minute one-woman show, Leslie Goddard portrays the legendary Babe. It is 1955, and Babe is reflecting on her life, remembering her rise from Olympic medalist to world-class golf champion.

Babe was one of only 126 women competing at the 1932 Olympic Games. In 2016, more than 4,600 women will participate.

The story of tough-minded, funny, and fearless "Babe" is a great way to celebrate physical fitness, women athletes, and the 2016 Olympics.
