Danny Boy

*Oh Danny Boy the pipes, the pipes are calling from glen to glen and down the mountain side
The summer's gone and all the roses dying
'tis you 'tis you must go and I must bide
But come ye back when summer's in the meadow or when the valley's hushed and white with snow
'Tis I'll be there in sunshine or in shadow
Oh Danny Boy, Oh Danny Boy I love you so*

*And when ye come and all the flowers are dying
If I am dead, as dead I well may be
You'll come and find the place where I am lying
And kneel and say an Ave there for me*

*And I shall hear tho' soft you tread above me
And all my grave will warmer sweeter be
If you will bend and tell me that you love me
Then I shall sleep in peace until you come to me*

NOTES FROM THE PATH OF LIFE

By Peg Leonard

“There’s no such thing as an average day. Each one is unique, unlike any other, and will happen only once in the entire history of the universe.”
[Simple Wisdom]

ADULT BIBLE STUDY

The Adult Bible Study meets every 1st & 3rd Tuesday per month in the Fellowship Hall at 1 pm. On March 7 the class will discuss Lesson 6, Day 2, “Touch and See”. Do we need proof like Thomas to believe? On March 21st the class will discuss Lesson 6, Day 3, “Peace be with you.” What sparked the Apostles to go out into the world? Can we have that spark? Come join us to unravel these ideas that Max presents.

THE MISSION CIRCLE

The Mission Circle is a group of women who meet the 2nd Thursday of each month at 1 pm in the Fellowship Hall for fellowship and Spiritual Growth. On March 9 the women of the Mission Circle will gather to set their agenda for the year. Peg Leonard will provide refreshments.

EASTER MORNING CLOTHING CLOSET

Easter Morning Clothing Closet (the Clothing Closet) is open Wednesday 6-8 pm; Thursday 10:30 am – 12:30 pm; Saturday 10 am – 1 pm at the Path of life Mission Center. Donations can be brought to the Clothing Closet when open or to Brewerton UMC. At this time we need Baby clothes, especially baby boys. Thanks to all who have donated.

COMMUNITY DINNER

The community dinner is served on the last Thursday of the month at 4:30 – 6 pm. The cooks and helpers at the dinner look forward to greeting and chatting with everyone. It feels like every Thursday the weather is iffy but despite that we continue to have many of our friends coming to dinner. March’s meal will be home-made Macaroni & Cheese Salad and a variety of desserts! Come and check it out. The Clothing Closet is open during the meal.

**** Pastor Justin Hood was out of town and was not able to write an article for this month’s newsletter. However, he posted an e-mail of which I have placed an abbreviated copy here.

Wonderful Brewerton United Methodist Church Folks,

I wanted to take a moment to announce/remind folks that we are having a Methodist Study starting on Monday, March 6 at the Brewerton United Methodist Church from 1:00pm to 2:30pm.

The emphasis of the study will be focused on a discussion of the United Methodist Church. During the course our objective is to learn the following:

- 1) The history of the Methodist Movement.
- 2) Who John Wesley was and his key theological ideas and their Biblical origins.
- 3) How does the Methodist Church function?
- 4) What is Connectionalism and why is it important to the United Methodist Church?
- 5) What is the Polity of the Methodist Church and how does it impact churches on a local basis?
- 6) What is Conferencing and why do we do it?

I look forward to delving into this material with you tomorrow and broadening our understanding of the United Methodist Church. If you have any questions or concerns, please feel free to let me know. Our first session on March 6, 2017 will be a crash course in United Methodist history. We will be discussing the origins of the Church and the events from the 1730's to 1968 that changed our denomination. Come ready to learn, laugh and engage in fellowship with your Methodist peers. This is a wonderful opportunity to get to know one another better and to learn what it means to be people of the Methodist Movement!

A Message From Your Editor

It sure looks like spring is coming early this year. Early or later, spring has its sights and sound that don't change from year to year. For me it's comforting to see and hear the same sights and sounds and it often lets me remember way back to a time when spring was also a time for starting a new season of work and hope. The hope was of a new beginning. Hope for good weather with rain as needed and warm sun to keep life growing.

This is usually a time for tapping maple trees for making syrup. Few think that this is dependent on the weather. It is, not just at this time but also on the amount of winter snow we had. But there is always hope for a good run. A good run is a lot of work but with great reward.

It's also a time to get out a take a breath. I can remember when we would start a fire in the wood stove to take the chill off in the morning. As the day warmed up, we would open a few windows and a door to let a little fresh air in, even with the wood stove still heating. We would even open the barn doors, let the cows out for the day, and the chickens out to scratch around for the day. We also had a goose and a couple of ducks that we would let out for the day. The goose was funny though, if a flock of wild geese flew over, he would get all excited and try to fly. He was way too heavy and couldn't get more than a foot off the ground and his attempt would end up in a not too graceful - head-over-heels tumbling, squawking, crash. After which, he would stand up, flap his wings and honk several times as if to say "I meant to do that". The ducks would be "clacking" (they had a weird quack) to say "yup, right". I can still see them today. Their names (mom named them) Mr. Goose and Mrs. Duck and Mr. Duck. Like I said, mom named them... And mom had a clan (as mom called them) of chickens as well. Mr. Rooster and his hens - all Mrs. Hen...go figure. Anyway, come sun set it was time to herd them all up. The chickens would go to roost themselves. We would go in and do a head count and shut the door. The ducks usually went well enough. But the goose would often argue by squawking and hissing and would sometimes try to bite you. He bit me once, and I still carry the mark. After that I carried a switch and would use it and he would go in protesting all the way.

Now, no one knows how old the old goose was, but he was with us more than 15 years. And I guess he honked and squawked till his last day. One night he tucked his head under his wing like always to sleep, and passed away. Maybe, he finally flew, high with the wild geese.

What’s NEW in the Pantry?

As I sit down to write this article (2 days past the deadline), Punxsutawney Phil predicted six more weeks of winter weather, LOVE was in the air as we celebrated Valentine’s Day and we honored two of our past presidents, Washington & Lincoln, on President’s Day. How is it that there are so many special events in our shortest month? For our school students and teachers, February is also the month to enjoy a “mid-winter recess,” a time to take a break from the books for a week. For three local students, a 4th grader, a 7th grader, and a Junior in High School, their break week included performing community service in the Food Pantry. Our young student volunteers worked alongside our veteran volunteers; bringing their youthful enthusiasm and energy to the work they did. It was heartwarming to witness our youngest volunteers in action; giving up part of their own time to give back to those in need! They performed a variety of tasks and did so as if they were being graded; eager to please by completing as many assignments as they could. At one point, I asked them to work more slowly (not something you hear me say often!) so that I could keep up with them! As a result, we were able to get a lot of tasks done that we wouldn’t have normally had the time to do during pantry hours! How I love the opportunity to work with and train future pantry volunteers!

Easter “Adopt a Family” Food Baskets

We will be celebrating the holiest of Christian holidays, the resurrection of Jesus on April 16th. Plans are currently underway to share with our neighbors in need again this year through our Easter “Adopt a Family” project. If you’d like to participate, bags and lists will be available in the narthex beginning on Ash Wednesday, March 1st. Food baskets will be assembled beginning on Thursday, April 6th.

We will be delivering baskets following worship on Palm Sunday (4/9), and organizing basket pickups on April 11th & 13th, during pantry hours. With your help, we hope to provide 80 to 100 families with all the ingredients for a complete holiday meal this Easter.

Calling All Volunteers!!!

As we prepare for the busy months ahead, we are looking to recruit new volunteers to join our team. Our pantry is open on Tuesdays from 10:00 a.m. to Noon and Thursdays from 4:30 p.m. to 6:30 p.m., but there are lots of tasks that are done “behind the scenes” and throughout the week:

Bread Mission – clients are invited to visit the pantry during any of the Tuesday/Thursday hours to receive bread & bakery items. We receive weekly donations from Panera Bread on Route 11 in Cicero on Monday nights and Panera on Route 31 in Clay on Saturday mornings. Volunteers are needed to pick up the bread from our two locations on a rotating schedule and deliver it to the pantry for distribution.

Grocery Rescue – a program sponsored by the Food Bank supplies fresh produce, dairy & meat products when available from local grocery stores (i.e. Clay Wal-Mart, BJ's, etc.) Volunteers are needed to unload the truck on Thursday afternoons and sort the items received prior to pantry hours – Noon to 2:00 p.m.

Food Sense – we offer monthly food packages and specials to pantry clients, congregation members and community members. We work with Divine Mercy, Central Square to make reduced food packages available to anyone who is interested (no eligibility requirements) every month. Cash payments or SNAP benefits (EBT) available. Volunteers are needed to help package the food items and transport them to the pantry for distribution each month.

Community Garden – the Northern Onondaga County Library in Cicero (NOPL Cicero) provides us with a community garden plot and volunteers help with the planting, maintenance, harvesting and distribution of the fresh produce to our pantry, Anna's Pantry at Sacred Heart in Cicero and St. Rose in North Syracuse; making it possible for us to provide our clients with a selection of fresh produce throughout the summer and fall growing season. Volunteers are needed to plant, weed and harvest.

Neighborhood Food Drives – our pantry relies heavily on donations of food, personal care and household cleaning items each and every month.

Our relationship as a Partner Agency with the Food Bank of Central New York provides us with grants to purchase food through their organization, but that only accounts for a portion of the food and non-food items we need to provide our clients with supplemental food items and everyday necessities. Volunteers are needed to organize local food drives!

Our community food pantry does the work it does throughout the year through the volunteer support and efforts of our multigenerational volunteers: teens (Middle School/High School Students,) College students, and adults and seniors. We have a job for EVERYONE and can match your interests/talents and availability to one or more of the tasks. Students can earn community service credit for the work they perform at our food pantry. If you'd like to tour our food pantry to learn more or have questions regarding the work we do, please contact: Deb Lombard, Pantry Coordinator at (315) 439-0589 or via email at: brewertonfoodpantry@aol.com. Thank you for your interest – we look forward to spreading the word about the great community service work that is happening right here in Brewerton! We have a job for EVERYONE and would LOVE to have you join our TEAM!

Thank you for your continued support of our food pantry mission. TOGETHER we ARE DEFINITELY making a DIFFERENCE in the LIVES of MANY!!!
