Welcome

- a. Ryan Odor, chairperson for the Clay County Democrats, opened the meeting at 630pm. In attendance were members of the community as well as Brett Copeland from the Dickinson County Democrats, Jim Eliason from the Buena Vista County Democrats, and Bryce Peppers who is an organizer with the Elizabeth Warren campaign.

Agenda	Notes
Spencer Flag Fest Panel	Flag fest was discussed, specifically Saturday afternoon. A spot in the parade will be reserved for those Democrats who wish to walk. Panel location ideas were discussed with the band shell as location number 1 and an indoor shelter as a backup. Outreach and visibility is important and ways to do so were brought up. Ways mentioned were a phone bank, an email blast, as well as a press release. Dickinson County noted they would do a Save the Date for the panel. A blurb will be drawn up to add to the Flag Fest pamphlet. Mitch Day would check with Upper Des Moines to gauge need for Food Bank items.
Movie Night and Issues Binder	Linda shared information about film screenings. First screening is tentatively scheduled for the first Monday in May. Reach out on the Facebook page or on Twitter for more information. Mitch is putting together a binder for the Clay County Fair booth of candidates and their stance on various issues. Please reach out the Facebook page or on Twitter for more information on how you could help..
Monthly Meetings	The idea of having the monthly meetings in various towns across the county was mentioned again with Everly and Fostoria the first places being mentioned. If you have a location you would like to see the meeting happen, please let us know.
Heartland Farm Forum and local issues	The recent Heartland Forum was discussed along with impressions of it. You can watch the video here . Brett Copeland gave an update on the Summer Sizzler that Dickinson County hosts. The event will be on August 7. The doors will open at 500pm. 100 tickets have already been sold with more available soon. All candidates have been invited.
