

FAQs for Brides

Where is Marker 137 located?

Marker 137 is located on three acres of pristine waterfront views on the Intracoastal Waterway across from Masonboro Island, an undeveloped North Carolina Coastal Reserve.

How many people can Marker 137 accommodate?

Approximately 250

Do I need to have insurance for my event at Marker 137?

Yes. Marker 137 is fully insured. However, Marker 137 requires that each client retain a one day special events coverage policy. You may select from our vendor list or check with your own insurance provider.

With whom do I coordinate pre-event site visits?

Frances or Ashley at 910-523-5328 (office), or by email at Frances@marker137.com or ashley@marker137.com

Is there a dedicated power source for the vendors?

Yes, there is a dedicated power source that is available for caterers, disc jockeys, bands and any other electrical needs.

Is there a building on the grounds of Marker 137?

No, there is not a building on the grounds for the actual event. However, there is a small cottage for the bride's preparation (The Mermaid Cottage) that includes a large bedroom area and bathroom area for "day of" dressing and preparation. Tenting options are available through our local vendors that include full amenities for indoor options while still maintaining the waterfront view of Marker 137.

Does Marker 137 have exclusive arrangements with specific vendors?

No. Marker 137 has a 'getting started' local vendor list that is included in the Bridal Packet and is also found on the Marker 137 website- www.marker137.com. There are many excellent local vendors ready to serve you that we have worked with in the past.

Is this a pet friendly site?

Yes. Your pet can be a member of the wedding party!

Are restrooms available at Marker 137?

Fully furnished restroom facilities are available through local vendors.

Are there different pricing packages and options?

Yes, we offer different pricing packages based on the activities desired by the bride.

Is guest parking available at Marker 137?

There is limited parking depending on the size of your event. We do have space reserved for the bridal party and guests who have limited mobility.