REQUEST FOR PROPOSALS

NOTICE: 2022 ROE FOUNDATION AWARD

With the significant amounts of funding coming from the State, Federal and Local governments for programs it was determined by the ROE Foundation Governing Board to forego the 2022 award cycle, with an exception of consideration for application in 2022 of any organization with an emergency need that the surge and COVID funding does not address and that meets the criteria for award from the ROE Foundation. The normal cycle of awards is expected to resume for 2023 projects.

Purposes of Grant

To provide funds for programs that serve low-income elderly citizens age 62 years or older who reside in rural areas of Eastern Washington State. To work through Community Action in Eastern Washington as an applicant or as a host for other non-profit applicants serving low-income elderly populations.

Grant Award Amount

Please Note: The award process this year has changed. The ROE Foundation Charitable Trust will make only one award this year. The amount of the grant will be a one-time $50,000.00 award for one application. The application must answer one of the following three interest areas in addition to addressing the needs of the population defined in the Purposes of Grant section above:

1. Well Being: Examples—safe housing, medical security
2. Advocacy: Examples—legal support, fraud protection, social justice
3. Reinvention: Examples—supporting seniors in new or non-traditional ways including social and cultural needs

Grant Requirements

The proposed program must address the needs of or benefit low-income elderly populations (62 years and older) and operate within rural Eastern Washington. Evidence of attempts to acquire other funds to support the program other than ROE Foundation funds is required. Capital programs are not considered. The grant is not intended as continuation funding for previously funded programs.

If you are a non-profit but are not a community action agency and you have a program that otherwise meets the purposes and requirements of the ROE Foundation grant you are encouraged to contact and partner with the nearest community action agency. To find the list of community action agencies in Eastern Washington you can go to www.wapartnership.org/ to get the contact information.

Reporting Requirements

Successful applicants must agree to report mid-year and at the end-of-year on the outcomes on the forms provided on The ROE Foundation website for the funded program and must be willing to include and release to The ROE Foundation success stories and unrestricted photographs, video, or other supportive media illustrating the program in the mid-year and end-of-year reports for the Foundation's use in advocating for the Foundation's work. Releases from any person or business included in the photos must have been secured. Successful applicants must also agree to proactively release information to their local media on the receipt of the grant and on subsequent successes in the program resulting from the grant.
