Darleen Zelinka, Coord. of Faith Formation

Please pray about being a Catechist for the upcoming school year.
If you are feeling called to share the gift of your faith with others especially our young church, please let me know. - Darleen
It is not a time to "let others step up," It is time to act on God's call and acknowledge the gifts God wants us to share.

"You are the light of the world. A city set on a mountain cannot be hidden. Nor do they light a lamp and then put it under a bushel basket; it is set on a lampstand, where it gives light to all in the house. Just so, your light must shine before others, that they may see your good deeds and glorify your heavenly Father." Matthew 5:14-16

Pray for Evangelization

The teachings of Jesus are not easy. In fact, the commandment that Jesus offered in today's reading is extremely difficult, "love one another." It is only when we receive God's love personally, that we are then transformed to be bearers of God's love to others! Look for ways this week to spend time with God & look around you to see people that need to experience God's love through you.

Spiritual Life

Easter

Question:

Why is the Easter season so long? And should we be doing something special for it?

Answer:

You've probably noticed the priest continuing to wear white vestments at the Sunday liturgy. While we celebrated Christ's resurrection several weeks ago, the Easter season extends fifty days — just over seven weeks — from Easter Sunday to Pentecost. For most of that time — about six weeks — Jesus is still with the disciples, teaching and encouraging them. The Easter season isn't just a celebration of when Jesus is with us. At the Last Supper, Jesus promised to send an "advocate" or "counselor" when he left. At the Ascension, he directs the disciples to await "power from on high" — the coming of the Holy Spirit. The Ascension completes the Paschal Mystery, beginning with Jesus' suffering and death and continuing in the resurrection. But the Holy Spirit ushers in a new era for the Church.

After spending weeks in prayer, fasting, and service during Lent, it may seem odd that we don't widely have similar practices for Easter. That doesn't mean you can't embrace the season! Commit to taking moments of little joy throughout the weeks, like random acts of kindness towards others. Consider reading the Acts of the Apostles to learn more about the early Church or picking up an Easter devotional to pray with. He is still risen indeed!
