October 8, 2017
Twenty-Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time
Mt 21:33-43

“He will put those wretched men to a wretched death and lease his vineyard to other tenants who will give him the produce at the proper times.”

After telling a parable about tenants of a vineyard who killed the servants and the son that the landowner he sent to collect his fair share of the crop, Jesus asks what the landowner should do to the tenants. Before we approve of the disciples response, we should consider: Does the vineyard represent the world? Do the tenants represent us, who have been given a share in God’s world to be productive for the Lord? Do the servants represent the patriarchs and prophets that God repeatedly sent to the Israelites to remind them to love God and their neighbor? Does the owner’s son represent Jesus who came to teach us how to love God and our neighbor; to love our enemies; to love one another as He loved us? Are we being productive with what God gave to each of us? Are we returning to God His fair share by sharing with others? Now, do we still want to “put those wretched men to a wretched death?”

The Lunch Bunch

The Lunch Bunch will meet every 2nd Tuesday. The next meeting is October 10th at 11:30 a.m. at St. Pius X Parish Hall. Open to all adult parishioners. It will be a themed luncheon of Italian food. Please bring your favorite Italian dishes, sides, and desserts to share. Volunteers will be needed to help set up and clean up. We will be playing games, so please bring your favorite board games to play. A sign-up sheet will be available at both parishes.

Scripture Sunday 2017

Mark your calendar for Scripture Sunday 2017 in the Diocese of Owensboro! In Pope Francis’ apostolic letter, Misericordia et misera, he explained that the Year of Mercy reminds us that mercy isn’t only for a specially-designated year, but is part of the ongoing life of the Church. He said it would be a good idea if “every Christian community, on one Sunday of the liturgical year, could renew its efforts to make the Sacred Scriptures better known.” Following up on Pope Francis’ suggestion, Bishop William F. Medley has designated the third Sunday of October as Scripture Sunday in the Diocese of Owen sboro. This year it falls on Sunday, October 15. Stay tuned for more information, and be sure to visit owensborodiocese.org/scripturesunday. St. Pius X and St. Anthony will be distributing bookmarks that explain Lectio Divina on the weekend of October 14th & 15th.
