The First Christmas Celebration

Luke 2:8-20

God's Son came to the poor and humble, not the proud and rich. The invitation was extended to the shepherds who were on the fringe of society because they were looked down on as smelly, crooked and unclean. They were not allowed to testify in court or attend temple worship, yet they were the first ones God announced the good news to. Maybe their celebration of the first Christmas ought to be a pattern for us this year as we make plans for the special day. What did they do?
