

Parent Code of Conduct

The Strikers Soccer Club has provided this outline of expected behavior from parents and the family of its players. Parents should read and understand what is expected of them and what behavior is deemed tolerable and in the best interest of the players and club.

By signing this form, parents agree to conduct themselves, at all club events in a way that exhibits the concepts of good sportsmanship, fairness, respect, and good citizenship. Failure to do so could and may result in loss of privilege to attend club events, including, but not limited to games and practices.

1. My child will participate under their own free will.
2. The game is played for the youth and not the adults.
3. I, and my guests, will be positive role models and do our best to display good sportsmanship, courtesy and respect for the players and coaches of our club, as well as, the opposing players, coaches and referees.
4. I will refrain from using profane language or gestures, booing and or taunting towards any player, coach, or official.
5. I will not encourage behavior that will endanger the health of the athlete's.
6. I will teach my child to treat the other players, coaches and officials with respect.
7. I will teach my child that doing one's best is more important than the outcome of the game, and I will not come down on my child for mistakes or poor play; instead encourage them to work hard and do one's best.
8. I will respect the referees and officials of the game and not question them either during or after the game. I will teach my child to do the same.
9. I understand that it is the coach's position to handle any and all issues with opposing coaches and or officials and I will never confront an opposing coach or official either during a game or after.
10. I agree to not coach my player or any other from the sideline during games or practices, and instead leave the coaching to the coaches.
11. I will be on time for practices and games and notify my coach ahead of time if coming late or missing an event.
12. I will provide a drug, tobacco, and alcohol free environment at all games and practices and refrain from their use at games and practices.
