

Anna Kurzynski

Competitive Instructor

Anna recently graduated from the University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point with a Bachelor of Arts in Dance. Over the past few years, Anna has had the privilege to train with the Radio City Rockettes in the Rockette Summer Intensive Program, on scholarship with the Gus Giordano Dance School in Chicago, and most recently at Broadway Dance Center (BDC) in their Professional Semester Program. She had the amazing opportunity to make her NYC stage debut at the Ailey Citigroup Theatre with BDC, performing works from multiple Broadway choreographers. Anna was also a 2-year member and captain of the UWSP Dance Team, and a 3-year staff member with Just for Kix. Her choreography has been seen on the UDA Collegiate National Championships Final's Floor, at the American College Dance Festival, and at the WACPC State Dance Competition. Anna is now the new associate choreographer for The Choreo Co., working with dance teams around the country. She currently resides in Minneapolis, MN and is passionate about choreography, teaching and inspiring others through this art.
