This trip is a near duplicate of the 2020 trip that was interrupted by covid. The folks on that trip were positively impressed during our short stay and many have expressed an interest in returning.

Red Mountain: Red is an up and coming but still old school ski hill in BC with 110 runs on 3850 acres, and 2915 feet of vertical spread out over 3 mountains. Red averages 300" of snow per year. It has been featured in the 2019 Warren Miller movie and TGR's documentary about the Jackson Hole Air Force. This is NOT a massive mega-resort but a real ski hill with some very real skiing. High speed quads? Nope. But there is cat skiing for $10 CAD! 18% beginner, 31% intermediate, 23% advanced, 28% expert with lots of great tree skiing. Check out the state and some videos here: <http://www.redresort.com>.

Whitewater: Whitewater is less known area ~1.5 hours from Red. They have 82 named runs over 1184 acres with 2044 of vertical. Snowfall averages 40 FEET per year! 10% beginner, 32 blue, 47% Black, 11% double black. Powder Magazine calls Whitewater "one of the best powder mountains on the continent" and Ski Canada has rated Whitewater as having the Best Deeps, Best Bowls, and Best Glades. Check it out at: <https://www.skiwhitewater.com/>

49 North: Never heard of it? Me either! 82 trails, 2325 acres, 1851 vertical and 301" of average snowfall. I have been personally assured that this is a little gem worth checking out by a member who lives "out there". Have a look at: <http://www.ski49n.com/>.

Lodging: We'll be staying 6 nights at the Prestige Mountain Resort in Rossland BC. This is in town and it is a very short shuttle to the hill. Breakfast is NOT included this time but the restaurant at the motel is good. Here is the web site: <https://www.prestigehotelsandresorts.com/locations/rossland/location-contact-information/>

The final night will be at an airport motel in Spokane (TBD) so we can get early return flights (hopefully) and avoid 2AM wakeups... If you have any left over energy, there is a casino a couple blocks away!

How do we get there?

At present, group air to Spokane from CLE or PIT is ~$750. You can buy seats online for ~$550. Southwest air will be published in September and their rates are usually lower and include baggage. So, once again we will be using individual air as the airlines are not being group friendly. You can book this yourself or our travel agent can book for you.

To catch the bus to Red, you MUST be at the Spokane airport by 2:00PM on arrival day. There are quite a few flights that satisfy this requirement. Flying to Spokane the day before may also be a good option. We MAY push this bus departure time back a couple hours depending on what the flight schedules do but won't make it earlier.

Because we are spending the last night near the airport, you can select any return flight. Those connecting to the Schweitzer trip just need to get to the airport to meet that bus.

What's included:

The base package includes:

6 nights at the Prestige

1 night at an airport motel, probably the Quality Inn. (TBD)

All bus transfers

One day of skiing at Whitewater

One day at 49North

Lift Ticket Options:

Travel insurance:

We have arranged a group policy with Travel Protectors as in the past. Information will be distributed when you sign up.

Documentation:

The signed application along with a copy of your passport must be submitted at signup. (This is to assure that the names on the tickets are correct and input the ages for the senior discounts and that your passport will be valid for the time of travel.) We will also need to pre-submit passport info for the border crossings. A passport, valid for 6 months past the travel date, is required for travel to Canada. If you have past DUI or other legal issues, you may be denied entry to Canada. If you have ANY uncertainty as to your ability to enter Canada, PLEASE contact the Canadian authorities to resolve any issues BEFORE signing up.

Note that some states including PA have driver's licenses that are not "REAL ID" compliant. They keep extending the deadline and we need passports for this trip but please be aware of this. Your passport will be acceptable so if we book your flights we will ticket you using the name as it appears on your passport. We also need to submit your passport info for the bus crossing in to Canada.

COVID REQUIREMENTS

Currently vaccinations are REQUIRED for travel to Canada. You will need to submit your vaccine documentation to the Canadian government's "ArriveCAN" website prior to travel, At the time this is written, pre-entry testing is NOT required, that could change. More information will be provided as it becomes available.

Want to double up on trips? The Western PA Ski Council is running a trip to Schweitzer the week after this trip, some people will be combining these 2 trips for a 2 week vacation. Both trips are flying to Spokane so they combine seamlessly. We planned it this way!
