

From the President's Desk

The Christmas Faire returns to the Mansion this month! Many helping hands are already working to make this a spectacular event. The theme is "Tis the Season to Sparkle," and sparkle we shall! The Faire is scheduled for November 30, December 1 & 2. Two lunches will be served each day. Be sure to check out the new evening session to be held on Monday, Nov. 29 from 5 to 8 PM the night before called "Santa's Sneak Peek." The $25 fee to attend that evening event will include champagne and hors d'oeuvres. In addition, there will be a Santa and Nutcracker dancers in attendance for photo opportunities.

We will continue the tradition with the first lunch seating at 11:15 AM, and the second lunch option served at 1:00 PM. Shopping with vendors, baked goods, and gingerbread houses will all be available and more. We will have sign-up sheets in the Club for you to volunteer to help in many ways and places. Start making plans with your friends to attend for the shopping, the luncheon, and stepping into this "most wonderful time of the year."

Last month's October General Meeting was so historical. Mr. Bagby, the great-grandson of David Woodward, came with his family. The ballroom originally was where the family bedrooms were located. Mr. Bagby said his mother was born in the bedroom where our grand piano stands on the stage. The Bagby family was so grateful to our members for the wonderful care we take of the mansion. Take note of the setting we created in the foyer using the original piece of furniture from the Woodward home and the photos given to us by the Bagby family. Two days later I received this lovely note from Mr. Bagby:

"Jane—The first thing I said to Candy yesterday when we were leaving the Woodward Mansion was that in the dictionary next to the definition for "lovely Southern hostess" would be a picture of you. The most impressive thing for me of the whole day was how gracious and a wonderful hostess you are. Thank you very much for having us at your meeting. I can't tell you how much it means to our family for you to take such wonderful care of that grand old mansion. Can you imagine the splendor of that home in the early 1900's? Thank you again for your warm Southern hospitality. Your friendship means a lot to me.

*Your friend,
Tom Bagby*

I want to thank all our members for giving your time, services, and donations to a home that we hope to serve many generations to come. Hope to see many of you at the Club dressed to "sparkle" this month.

Jane Stone
President

A Busy October Meeting & Luncheon

For the first general meeting of the 2021-2022 year, the house was packed for Tom Bagby's Mansion memories program and presentation of a settee that the Woodward family had in the Mansion one hundred years ago.

This beautiful piece of furniture and several Woodward family photos were brought to the Woman's Club as a gift of the Bagby family in honor of their patriarch, David J. Woodward.

Members also enjoyed the return of our legendary Boutique in the French formal room and a showcase of Round Table activities and opportunities in the library. The luncheon overflowed into the foyer with three long tables set up to handle the many attendees. The tables in the foyer and two dining rooms were decorated by luncheon hosts, your Board of Directors, with the talents of Janice McGraw. The luncheon was delicious. Luncheon salads have been such a hit House Supervisor, Tina Zimmerman, was asked to share her broccoli salad recipe. It was sent to you by email after the luncheon. Are we going to need to ask about the "Autumn Chopped Salad" with creamy poppyseed dressing too? That was our October salad and it was yummy.

The American Home & Garden Round Table held their October meeting at the Woodward Mansion.

One of the long-standing traditions of the AH&G Round Table is the Dia De Los Muertos program each October given by Rose Reyna-Sanchez. With her birthday on Oct. 30, Rose has always been celebrating and remembering her deceased loved ones throughout the years.

Member Rose Reyna-Sanchez

The history of this sculpture of La Catrina was shared as part of Rose's presentation. Marsha Metz was with WCSA member Harriett Ellerbee when Harriett bought the artwork to support women artisans from Third World countries. When Harriett passed away, Marsha was able to purchase La Catrina and lovingly presented it to Rose. Having La Catrina present with us was a sweet memory of Harriett, who worked so tirelessly for the Club.

Congratulations to Elizabeth Neely on being appointed Long Range Planning Committee Chairman.

At the last WCSA Board of Directors meeting it was determined that due to rising costs it was necessary to raise the cost of the monthly luncheons from $25 to $30. Please note this change when making your reservations for the November luncheon.
