Chinese Houses: The Architectural Heritage of a Nation

Presenter: Ronald G. Knapp
SUNY Distinguished Professor Emeritus

Please join us for this beautifully illustrated talk by Ronald G. Knapp, author of more than 20 books, many dealing with the cultural and historical geography of the Chinese country side. Ron has been visiting and writing about Chinese houses in rural and urban areas for 50 years.

His talk will survey the extraordinary variety of houses throughout the country and focus on exquisite examples of well-preserved traditional Chinese homes in rural and metropolitan areas while providing insights into little-known vernacular design concepts that emphasize the flexibility, adaptability, and versatility of traditional building forms and the work of traditional craftsmen.
