

PRESS RELEASE

Gospel Superfest TV Delivers Twenty-First Annual Black History Special for Syndication!

Two-hour special to cover decades of musical tributes & special performances.

For Immediate Release

February 1, 2021

Cincinnati, OH: Cartwright Entertainment Group, the producers of Gospel Superfest TV deliver the first of five TV specials slated for 2021 with its "21st Annual Salute to Black History Special. The show features Hollywood actors & actresses and features the top names in gospel music. This two-hour non-stop celebration brings back the show's first host Clifton Davis along with Vivica A. Fox and Wendy Raquel Robinson with an exciting mix of inspirational performances rarely seen on national TV. Sessions from New York City, Atlanta, GA, Louisville, KY and Baltimore, MD are compiled for a one-of-a-kind TV experience that spans the production's first eleven years. This show is simply electrifying from start to finish and is must see TV.

Performers for the special include: Karen Clark-Sheard, Kurt Carr Singers, Mary Mary, David & Tamela Mann, The Mighty Clouds of Joy, 7 Sons of Soul, Howard Hewett, Deitrick Haddon, Bishop Paul S. Morton, Sr., Hezekiah Walker & LFC, RIZEN, "The Late" Father Hayes & The Warriors, Trin-i-tee 5:7, Ramiyah and many others. However, multiple stars and well known performers appear during the finales including Tony Award winner Melba Moore, Rance Allen, Lexi, Gary Anglin, Vanessa Williams and a host of others.

The Best of Gospel Superfest Salute to Black History 21 will air in syndication, February 1 thru February 28, 2021. Please check local listings for dates and times in your area.

For more information please visit www.gospelsuperfest.com For interviews with the executive producer please call the production hotline at (800) 219-0337 or email at unitedtv@msn.com.