Sunday Meditation

When we trust in Christ for salvation, what we're doing is trusting in His and the Father's unconditional love for us. Because I'm able to confidently affirm that "He loved me and gave Himself for me" (Gal. 2:20), my hope for the future is secure. "So we know and believe the love God has for us" (I John 4:16). After my stroke when I was learning to walk again, I remember how I had to have something to lean on—a walker at first, then a cane. I needed above all else not to fall, and only by a dependable, steadying contact with solid ground could I keep from falling. The sure love of Christ is our trusted staff, on which we can lean heavily. All the heroic exploits of the saints and martyrs were motivated by this one thing—their unshakeable confidence in the unfailing love of God. All for Jesus, Richard

Christ Transforming Commitments: Choosing to Stay the Course

Ross Anderson is about to complete his 38th year as the preaching minister for the Cedar Grove Church of Christ in Fairburn, GA. He taught Bible and coached sports at Arlington Christian School for twenty years. Ross holds a B.A. from Freed-Hardeman University and an M.A. from Harding. He and Paula have been married since 1974 and have two children and three grandchildren. Contact Ross at rosscg@bellsouth.net.

A worship time for ages 3-5 during the message time of adult worship. The kids will learn Biblical lessons each week & do a craft. The Kingdom Kids room is located in the foyer, to the left, as you exit the doors. The green trees on the wall make it easy to find. Today's teacher's are Judy & Johnnie Pilgrim. If your child has an allergy, please let us know, as we sometimes serve a snack. Parent's; your children will return to their seats during the closing announcements by our elders. We pray that this time will be a blessing for you & your children at Newnan Church of Christ!
