Sermon on the Mount (cont)
September, 2020 Sermon Series

As Jesus begins to wrap up his first-ever sermon, he begins to get very specific about specific attitudes and actions Christian followers must have and act out. Some of these are hard to hear, hard to follow, and even harder to understand. However, he does make it pretty simple for us to choose to be one of his disciples.

Sept 6                                      Worry Wart                                      Matt 6:26-34

The first choice we have to make if we want to be spiritually healthy, according to Jesus: don't be a worrier. Yes! That's an easy one! Except it isn't, is it? The key to not being a worrier, says Jesus, comes down to one simple choice to make: are you willing to play hide and seek?

Sept 13                                      Planks, Pearls, and Pigs                                      Matt 7:1-6

Nearing the end of his first big sermon, Jesus gets a bit testy again with the current church leaders. They've tossed aside what God wanted for his people and accepted something lesser in its place. What is it? The answer is one we STILL get wrong, even to this day.

Sept 20                                      Knock, Knock! Who's There?                                      Matt 7:7-12

"The Golden Rule!", that's who! Wait; what does the Golden Rule have to do with Jesus knocking at a door?

Sept 27                                      Wide Load                                      Matt 7:13-14

Ever heard the phrase, "It's my way, or the highway!" What if I told you that's exactly the thought Jesus has when it comes to salvation... and being happy in life while stuck here on Earth? One thing's for sure; it's not a popular way to live.
