

MRS. THOMAS MALPASS

Mrs. Clara H. Malpass, 88 Pigeon, died Monday in Scheure Hospital, Pigeon, after a long illness.

She was born February 26 1889, in Chandler Township.

She and Thomas R. Malpass were married October 10, 1908, in Caseville. He preceded his wife in death on October 31, 1957.

Mrs. Malpass was a member of the Eastern Star and the First United Methodist Church of Pigeon.

Surviving are three sons Harold Malpass, Detroit Leonard Malpass, Caseville, and Arthur Malpass, Midland; three daughters, Mrs. Neilan (Lela) Hoffman, Merrill, Mrs. Clayton (Helen) Damm, Pigeon, and Mrs. Verne (June) Hermann, Detroit; one brother, Fred Watterworth, Caseville; one sister, Mrs. Lela Bedford, Elkton; 22 grandchildren, and 14 great-grandchildren.

Services will be Thursday at 1:30 p.m. from the Shelter-Bussema Funeral Home, Pigeon, with Rev. Martin Seitz, pastor, First United Methodist Church, Pigeon, officiating.

Friends may call this evening (Tuesday) at the funeral home.

Burial will be in the Colfax Cemetery.

1977